

New Design Leader for Woods Bagot London

International architectural practice, Woods Bagot, today announced the appointment of David Mason as the new Design Leader for its Lifestyle interiors team.

As a leading designer in the lifestyle sector, David has worked on a number of prestigious projects and brands across the globe. He will be joining a team that has recently won a BCO award for its work with Eversheds law firm in London.

David has worked on notable projects including Carlisle Bay, Antigua, Hilton hotel in Rhodes, the Emirates Pearl in the UAE, Chez Gerrard restaurant in London and the Leon restaurant chain.

David comments; "The quality of the design work and the immaculate attention to detail the Woods Bagot interiors team demonstrates is extremely impressive. They are responsible for some significant projects across Europe and I am joining them at a particularly exciting time."

Rob Steul, Principal, at Woods Bagot comments: "David's passion for design is evident throughout the exceptional work he has consistently delivered throughout his career. He is a significant hire for us at a time when our interiors team is proving itself to be world class. David's lifestyle experience further bolsters our offering in this area."
